JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 22 June 1964

1. [redacted] In response to his request, I advised Mr. Roy Moor, in the office of Senator William Fulbright, that we did not have any unclassified material on the Cuban economy which we could make available for the Senator's use at this time. In response to his query concerning [redacted] the Citizen's Committee for Free Cuba, I indicated that while [redacted] and the Committee were working in what they felt were the best interests of Cuba, we could not endorse [redacted] I pointed out that many Cubans, while having a strong love for their country, are frequently motivated by personal objectives and this should be kept in mind. Moor said he appreciated this and thanked me for looking into the matter for him. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

2. [redacted] Talked with William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, regarding the printing plant, our retirement bill and appropriations. See Memo for the Record for details. It is anticipated that we will meet once more with the combined Subcommittees before the Senate recesses for the Republican convention. 25X1

3. [redacted] Talked with Mr. Bob Young, Senate Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the case of the [redacted] I told Young that State Department had advised us of his desire to get a reading on these cases from the Agency. I told Young that a thorough review of our information on [redacted] developed no evidence of Communist Party activities or collaboration on their part. However, I pointed out that any reference to this report should be restricted to executive meetings of the Committee. I pointed out that we could not give the Committee any iron clad guarantee. We could merely state that our files contain no information to this effect. Young said he understood and appreciated our getting in touch with him. 25X1 25X1 25X1
